Captain Bob Pearson
Will Boost Red Triangle
Capt. Robert Pearson, M.L.A., will stump the Province in the interests of the Red Triangle Fund. The fighting person, after being wounded at the front, and unable to return in his own battleship, seized the opportunity of doing Y.M.C.A. work there, and was in charge of the activities in one of the zones, from the lane camps to the front line trenches. He is enthusiastic over the work the Red Triangle has done in England and France for the soldier boys.

Anglican Church
Services on Sunday, April 21st, will be at 11 a.m., followed by Holy Communion. The Ven. Archdeacon Dendy will preach at 11 a.m. on the following Sunday, April 22nd.
Sunday school at 2:30. Superintendent Mrs. F. Wright.
A hearty welcome to all.

Anglican Church
The ladies of the local Anglican church will hold a sale of work in the Oddfellows Hall, Blairmore, on Wednesday next, April 24th, commencing at 3 p.m. The stalls will contain a varied assortment of useful articles for children and grown-ups, home-made cooking and easily and fancy goods, etc. A recent tea will also be served from 3 to 6. Come and bring your children with you. The little ones can try their luck in the frequent fish pond. Gentlemen are specially invited.

The Men Who Came Back
This poem was written by Capt. John Cooper, of Oakland, California, formerly a captain in the United States Army, in collaboration with Sgt. Ivan DeVilliers. Capt. Cooper has just returned with the British-Canadian recruiting mission, the quickest road to the fighting front, where he fought. Sgt. DeVilliers, born a Boer, fighting the British as a boy, is now a recruiting sergeant in the Canadian uniform. He has a new piece of German "intelligence" with him, the far from the Germans to keep faith with the Boer people.

BLIGHTY—AND BACK.
(By Capt. John Cooper and Sgt. Ivan DeVilliers).
I went into the game for the glory; I came out turned into a Boer.
To the folks at home I'm a hero, to believe the tales that I tell;
Time came I was fed up on fuzzy, of taking and taking life.
I wished for the laughter of peace-time, and not this eternal strife.
A scratch on my side from the Boches, a slap with a gun on the head.
And I knew I was going to blighty, away from the land of the dead.
Back to life, and to blighty, away from the life of the Hun.
A hero, came out of the fighting, to tell of the deeds he had done.
Tales of night raids from the trenches, a skirmish in "No Man's Land".
Brought back to the eyes of my listeners, and a firm grip of the hand.
The boyhood around all attention, yet all seemed a pretense and a sham,
So I gave up the life of a hero, to go back to my pals again.

I tried to encourage the Blighters, to fight for their country's sake.
But they would all wait and wait, my recruiting seemed false.
Now that I'm back they don't want me, nor hear what I have to say.
They wish me God-speed on my journey and send me back over the way.
I'm sick to death of the blighters, who waste the old flag and then cry,
"Go over and fight for your country, for you're not doing the way."
We've disappointed, weak eyes for expansion, all we can see to trace.
Our money we'll give to the nation, and send them the drive to make the way.
Perhaps I did not meet the real boys, somehow I feel that they're Boes.
When that summer makes up within them—that hate for the trencher one Hun;
So it's out for the meek and the shaming, back to the trencher again.
But out there, with the chaos in khaki, I'll know that I'm living with men.

A bed of coal has been discovered near the whirl pool of Niagara Falls.

TRY to picture yourself in the muddy old trenches after exciting days and long nights of mortal danger and intense nervous strain. Rushing "whiz-bangs" and screaming "coal boxes" are no respecters of persons. You are hit! But despite duck and pain you still can face the long weary trudge back to dressing station. Weary, overworked and depressed, you are prey to wild imaginations of that other coming ordeal with the surgeon. There are other "walking wounded," too. You must wait, wait, wait. And then—

Canada-Wide Appeal

"In thousands of cases," writes an officer, "it was that first hot clasp of coffee that dragged the man back to life and sanity."
The tremendous helpfulness of the Y.M.C.A. as an aid to the "morale," or fighting spirit, of the soldiers is everywhere praised. No wonder the Germans make every effort to smash the Y.M.C.A. butts out of existence.
The Y.M.C.A. is everywhere. You first meet the helpful, manly Y.M.C.A. worker in camp, then on train and boat, at camp in England and in France, close to the firing line. Often he risks his life to reach you in the trenches. He has won the warmest praise from military authorities, statesmen—the King!
Have you a precious boy at the front? You cannot be "over there" to guide him away from fierce temptations of camp and city. You cannot comfort him in his supreme hour of distress. Your parcels to him are necessarily fewer. But the Y.M.C.A. thank God, is "over there," going where you cannot go and doing the very things you long to do—doing it for you and for him. Will you help? This vast organization of helpfulness needs at least $225,000 from Canada for 1918. For your boy's sake be GENEROUS!

Fight with Food

A Call to the Whole Dominion for the Utmost Effort to Produce Food for our Soldiers and Allies

OUR ALLIES are desperately short of food. In the midst of plenty ourselves we must face the stern reality of England on shorter rations than she has been for over a hundred years, and France with only three days' food reserve. Even from their present small supplies they are saving Italy from collapse through hunger.

Since shipping must be concentrated on the shortest routes, Canada and the United States must continue to be practically the only source of supply. Canada must provide wheat and meat in increasing quantities to meet a situation that imperils the issue of the war.

Men who can be spared for work on the farms must serve in this way. Those who are obliged to remain in the city or town can at least raise vegetables in their gardens or on vacant lots. Every effort will be made to see that labor is forthcoming to harvest the maximum crops that farmers can produce.

An increased spring acreage in wheat and other grain is vitally needed.

Stock raisers are asked to provide the greatest possible production of meat, especially pork. Starvation is threatening our Allies. Everyone in Canada must fight by doing his or her utmost to produce food to conserve food.

The Vancouver Province is of the opinion that when the girls employed in munition factories and other war work resume their ordinary household duties there will be a marked falling off in the number of dishes and kitchen utensils broken through carelessness. The discipline and care acquired in handling explosives will have become a habit.

The Dominion government, by proclamation, announces that, in the proceedings in any case, any officer of a municipality, in which a fine is imposed under the authority of any regulation enacted and made under the provisions of the War Measures Act, 1914, relating to any matter within the jurisdiction of the powers and duties, or under the control or administration of the Canada Food Board, are instituted at the instance of any provincial officer the fine shall be paid to the provincial treasurer.

A Truck for the Farmer

FARM equipment which will effect a time and labor-saving, and therefore a money-saving, must be carefully considered by every good farmer now-a-days.

The farm wagon, which for years was the most useful of all farm equipment, is now being replaced on the best farms by a sturdy, dependable motor truck. The truck will haul any farm product—fruit, grain, vegetables, stock, fertilizer, or wood—around the farm, or to the town or city many miles distant, in half the time, and at a much lower cost.

The Ford One-Ton truck is a rapid, economical and very serviceable means of transport. One of these on your farm will save you weeks of time in a single season and will enable you to pass through a crisis of labor shortage with less difficulty.

The Ford truck is supplied as a chassis only. This permits you to select any of the many body styles especially designed for the Ford truck and already on the market. Thus you can mount the one which suits your individual requirements.

Price $750 f.o.b. Ford, Ont.

The brethren claim that as they are a joint stock company and are paying heavy taxes, they should not have to pay the poll tax.

A Meeting of the Barber's Union (2) was held on Monday night last, about midway between Coleman and Blairmore, at which were present all the scalp shavers of the Crown's Nest. Present, including Secretary Lemieux and President Randall. After deliberating for some time, it was decided that owing to the increased cost of soap, etc., and the fact that so little money is now being spent in booze and sugar, that the price of a hair cut should not be less than 50 cents and for a straight hair 25 cents in order to conform with prices in Calgary and other such small centers. It was also unanimously decided that for practically bald heads should be shaved and that the barber should be compensated liberally for a haircut. It was clearly proven at the meeting that bald heads were responsible for so many barbers being killed in a week old, otherwise why should they be made wise special charges will be made for nursing. It was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that customers should be requested to get their hair cut on Saturday evenings if possible, so that they will be a credit to the barber on the Sunday morning service.
